

89.3 Adverbs in mid position

Complete the sentences using the words on the right. Put the adverb (certainly, usually etc.) in the best place.

- |   |  |
|---|--|
| <input type="checkbox"/> I _____ the man again.           | <input type="checkbox"/> would recognize – certainly |
| <input type="checkbox"/> We _____ our holidays in France. | <input type="checkbox"/> spend – usually             |
| 1 It _____ later.   | 1 will rain – probably                               |
| 2 The ball _____ the line.                                | 2 crossed – clearly                                  |
| 3 Our neighbours _____ out.                               | 3 are – always                                       |
| 4 The central heating _____ properly again.               | 4 was working – soon                                 |
| 5 The carnival _____ a great success.                     | 5 is – usually                                       |
| 6 I _____ the place as a child.                           | 6 visited – occasionally                             |
| 7 Phil _____ all about it.                                | 7 has forgotten – obviously                          |
| 8 I _____ the directions.                                 | 8 didn't understand – fully                          |

89.4 Adverbs of frequency

Write the sentences with the adverb (e.g. always) or adverbial phrase (e.g. every morning) in mid position or end position. Choose the best position.

- I shall remember your kindness to me. (always) _____
- The birds wake me up. (every morning) _____
- 1 I can open these milk cartons. (never) _____
- 2 It rains when I'm on holiday. (usually) _____
- 3 I do fitness training. (three times a week) _____
- 4 My flat mate is at home. (most evenings) _____
- 5 These toilets are inspected. (every hour) _____
- 6 Have you been to New York? (ever) _____

89.5 Adverbs in end position

Complete the sentences. Put the words and phrases on the right in the best order. (Sometimes there is more than one possible order.)

- |  |   |
|--|---|
| <input type="checkbox"/> I just want to sit _____. | <input type="checkbox"/> in the garden – peacefully |
| 1 We've visited the fair _____.                    | 1 regularly – since about 1985                      |
| 2 Alex went _____.                                 | 2 last year – to Wales                              |
| 3 The match is _____.                              | 3 next Wednesday – at Wembley                       |
| 4 I like York. I spent a week _____.               | 4 in June – there                                   |
| 5 You can park _____.                              | 5 by the town hall – all day                        |
| 6 We came _____.                                   | 6 here – five years ago                             |

89.6 The position of adverbs

Read this postcard and write the sentences. Put the adverbs on the right in the best place.

Dear Louise,  Thank you for having us. <sup>1</sup>We had a lovely time. <sup>2</sup>We arrived home at about eight. <sup>3</sup>You must come and visit us. <sup>4</sup>It's nice to see you and Mike. <sup>5</sup>You'll be able to come in the New Year. <sup>6</sup>We hope to see you. Love, Kate

- last weekend
- 1 in London 2 safely
- 3 before too long
- 4 always 5 maybe
- 6 some time

- _____
- 1 _____
- 2 _____